VARSITY LOSES TO ESPARTO

By Tom Williams '45

The rambling Bull Pups went to Esparto last Friday to bring home only one victory out of three games played.

The A's played better than usual, with Esparto leading by only two points most of the first half.

In the second half, Esparto put two men to guard Johnnie Pulido, who was doing most of the shooting. At the end of the third quarter, the Espartans were in the lead by six points.. In the last quarter, the Vaca High varsity came back fighting but, nevertheless, lost twenty-three to seventeen.

B's Again Victorious

Once again the B team chalked up a win as they beat the Esparto B's thirty-four to twenty-four.

Top scorer once again was Bera, who added twelve points to his credit. Defensive star was Nick Papin, who made only three points but kept our strong defense together.

At the half, our smooth working B's were ahead twenty-one to six, and from there, the string B's went to work and kept the second string under control. During the second half, the Esparto team began to creep closer to our score, and so the Bulldog starters once again went into action for another B team win.

C's Lose

The local C's lost to the Esparto second string B's by a score of twenty-five to eighteen. It was a good, exciting game, even though Esparto was ahead most of the time.

The first half was entirely in favor of Esparto as they pushed themselves up to a nineteen to eight lead, but our Bulldogs were just beginning, and they fought back hard, lessening the gap between the two scores by four points.

Al Damiano wasn't as hot as usual, but he still made eleven of the eighteen points. Though he played a scoreless game, Dale Cannon was the spark plug of the defense.

BULLDOGS WIN TWO FROM ST. VINCENT'S

By Rogert Young '45

Vaca C's Sweep Over St. Vincent's

Last Friday night St. Vincent's High School of Vallejo came to Vacaville.

In the opener, the local C's chalked up a 33-4 victory over the visiting Saints. The game started slowly, with neither team finding its shooting eyes for the first few minutes. The game became more lively during the second quarter. Special praise goes to Dale Cannon's outstanding defensive work which, no doubt, was a big help to the Bullpups in getting a 12-2 lead at halftime.

When the second half opened, the locals immediately began running up their score so much that the second string played most of the last half.

"Rabbit" Damiano was the star of the game with 14 points.

B's Drop Saints 27-17

The B game started, as the C game did, with the locals doing most of the scoring. The halftime score was 16-5. The second string played a large part of the game and held the Saints evenly.

The star of the game was Nick Papin who made 12 points and displayed brilliant defensive work. Wilburn and Bera turned in their usual good games.

Saints Take One Game

With a decisive defeat for the Bulldog Varsity, the Saints went home Friday night with one win to their credit. The first half of the game was played on even terms, with the lead frequently changing from one side to the other. The even tempo of the half was reflected in the halftime score, 16-13, in favor of the Saints.

In the second half, the Saints outscored the locals 32 to 10. The Bulldogs were weakened by the removal by the coach of two of our best players, probably because the boys were getting a little rough.

Burns of the Saints was the high scorer of the game with 21 points; while John Pulido led the locals with 10 points.

The final score was 48-23.

BULLDOGS TO BATTLE INDIANS

By Robert Young '45

Tonight at 7:00 o'clock, our traditional rivals, the Armijo Indians, will come here to play the last of a three-game series.

C's Out For Revenge

As usual, the C game will start the evening. The local Bullpups will play the role of underdogs since they have been twice defeated by the Indians.

In the first game, the Indians managed to squeeze out a one-point 25-24 victory in a game that was even closer than the score. In the last 10 seconds, the Bullpups made a foul shot, but a player had his foot on the line and the game ended in defeat.

In the second game, played at Fairfield, the Indians again defeated the Bullpups, this time by the larger score of 25-18. The Bullpups jumped to a 5-0 lead in the first few minutes; after that they only scored two points that half, while Armijo took a big lead. In the last half, the Bullpups came back fighting and managed to close up on the Indians, losing by only seven points.

Tonight B's Will Try to Take Third Straight from Indians

The Bulldog B's have taken two games this year from Armijo, and will be fighting tonight to take another from the Indians.

In the first game, the Bulldogs won a slow game 15-7, with the Indians stalling to keep the score down.

The second game, played at Armijo, was also a slow one, with the Bulldogs again on the large end of the score.

The local B's have a fine record this year, with 9 wins and 2 losses. The only two games lost were to Vallejo.

The Indian B's, this year, have lost a game to Dixon and one to Winters.

Sundy Bera, Nick Papin, and Don Wilburn are all good shots, and Nick Papin is a fine defensive player.

The Bulldogs also have a good second team which has played a great deal this year.

Armijo will probably try to hold the score down, and the game will be close as a result of that.

Probable starting lineup:

Forwards: Bera--Papin
Center: Wilburn
Guards: Nofuentes--Lorenzo

Indians Have Edge in Varsity Game

The Indian Varsity has taken two games from Vacaville but only after hard fights.

In the first game, the Indians won a close 32-31 game from the Bulldogs.

The second game started out to be an overwhelming Indian victory, but in the last half the Bulldogs fought to within seven points of their opponents.

The Bulldog Varsity has had a poor season, winning but one game from Esparto; although they lost by but one point both to Armijo and to Winters.

The Indians have a very fine Varsity this year, losing only two games, one game to Dixon and one to Vallejo. They have a high-scoring combination which will be hard to stop.

Starting Lineups

CAMPUS CHATTER

 BY MARGARET

Lucy Rodriguez spent the week-end in San Leandro and Oakland.

Margaret Jiminez spent Saturday in Sacramento.

Dolores Espinosa tells us that she spent the week-end in the Napa State Hospital. More of us will be there, if such news comes in very often.

Frank Pritchett and Joe Campos went to Armijo last Thursday night.

Clare and Anne Mowers, Barbara Allen, Nancy Chandler, Betty Price, and Louise Hilden went to San Francisco last Tuesday. They met some sailor friends and spent a very pleasant day.

Norine Towson went to Vallejo last Sunday.

Joe Campos and family entertained his sister-in-law and her mother at dinner last Sunday.

Anne Cheechov and William Moiseff were married last Friday in Reno.

Bob Cudaback was a visitor in Vacaville last Sunday.

Emily McCadden's sister Dorothy visited her over the week-end.

The Vaca High Swing Band is going to play for the militia dance tomorrow night.

Margaret Pritchett collected two more fiances last Sunday night. Now we know why she likes to work at the theatre.

Several Vaca High boys took a walk into the country last Friday afternoon. They enjoyed a delicious meal of chicken-in-the-rough. Tut Tut boys!

Due to the paper shortage, the Hilltop Rumble will be published every three weeks hereafter.

Joyce Jeffery spent last weekend working for her uncle in Benicia.

STAFF HEARS FROM DICK BAXTER

The following letter was received from Dick Baxter '42 who is with the Navy at Corpus Christi. It's swell to know that the boys enjoy the paper. Come again, Dick!

And some of you other fellas, how about hearing from you, and what are you doing?

February 4, 1943

Hilltop Rumble Staff
Vacaville Union High School
Vacaville, California

Dear Friends,

I want to thank you very much for sending the Hilltop Rumble. I think the rest of the boys in the service appreciate it as much as I do. It helps a great deal to keep up on friends and events back in old Vaca High. Morale is one thing we need the most of, and that's one of the very best ways that you can help keep it up. Many times I've wondered what was cooking back in school and wished I was there. I can't be there, but the Hilltop Rumble brings Vaca High to me for awhile, bringing memories of swell times, swell people and one year of school I'll always remember.

Sincerely,

Dick

SEEN AFTER THE ESPARTO GAME

Bill P. the first to ask an Esparto girl for a dance.

Everyone wondering who Jessie Mae was.

Robert Taylor with Arlene Franklin.

Joe Campos amazed at the grip of a certain girl in green.

Alderson always in the icebox.

All the boys writing addresses on the blackboard in the kitchen.

Haroldine Hawk and Arlene Franklin the only girls present from Vaca High.

Joe Campos taking Greta's place as yell leader. Very good, Joe!

Blanchard Rogers eating his supper and making everyone hungry.

E. Shelton, Sam Papin '42, and Russell Chandler '42 leaving the game during the half. What was up?

Robert Damiano asking everyone for a white shirt.

Esparto having a tumbling act between games.

Tommy Williams watching the Esparto yell leaders at all time-outs.

Vaca students pounding nails during the half.

Coach Mitchell catching Bob Taylor eating before the game.

Joe C. and Bill S. making a very cute couple on the dance floor.

Vaca boys so bored with the dance that they shot dice on the middle of the dance floor.

Fred Bowles enjoying himself with a red head.

All of the Vaca boys marching around the room when hearing the Army Air Corps song.

Espartans noted for the Virginia Reel. (So Vaca found out)

SEEN AT THE HIGH AND GRAMMAR SCHOOL GAME

Burna jealously watching Bettie talking to Victor Lorenzo.

Manuel N. holding Bettie's hand.

James Rogers with Anne Cheechov.

Nick Papin trying to make a hit with Bettie Cline.

Arlene Franklin sitting with Bob Taylor.

THE FEELING'S MUTUAL

Virginia R.: I like mathematics when it isn't over my head.
Betty Price: That's the way I feel about pigeons.

SEEN AT THE DIXON GAME

Vic L., Manuel N., and Sundy Bera making a B line for the seats right back of the Cline sisters, Bettie and Burna.

Nick P. giving Phyllis Norman the old cold shoulder. Oh, well, maybe Nick is a little rusty on his etiquette.

Greta sitting with all the Vaca High Wolves. Why, Greta, I thought you were being true to R. E.

Sam P. taking Ginny Pena home.

Trent hitting everyone with a rubber gun. Just like a freshman!

Frances B. coming to the game wearing jeans and a certain Vaca High boy's jacket.

Sundy enjoying Leola's company.

Mr. Mitchell and Manuel N. exchanging friendly glances.

Margaret J. quite worried over Martin.

R. Young with a group of Dixon boys. Traitor!

Rose Cintas overjoyed with a certain sailor's company.

Sam Papin presenting Carmen Garcia with a cigar.

Jacoba yelling by herself for a change.

MYSTERY

A Scot, a Frenchman, and an American were dining together and were really enjoying themselves. When the waiter came to present the check, they were flabbergasted to hear the Scotsman ask for the check. The newspapers the next day carried a headline saying "French Ventriloquist mysteriously Murdered."

OLD CARS!

Salesman: This second-hand car business is certainly a tricky game.

Alderson: Everything goes, eh?

Salesman: On the contrary! Nothing goes!

It takes many swallows to make a summer, but only a few to bring on a fall.

CORNY CORNER
By Clare and Nancy

James R.: Let's race making faces.

John S.: Not fair. Look at the one you have to start with.

Manuel: Give me your heart, Babe?

Bettie: Oh, no!

Manuel: Well, don't be so touchy, I'll give it back.

Angie: Did you ever hear the story of the onion?

Dorothy: No, tell it.

Angie: No, dearie, it would make you shed tears.

Fred R.: Everything is going up.

John P.: Yes, yesterday a girl offered me a nickel for my thoughts.

Betty L.: Why are the upper class girls such talented painters?

Mary Lou: Because they're skilled in painting faces.

Question: What made Joe Campos' watch stop?

Answer: A girl's face.

Pat to Lee: I've never had a pair of shoes that fit but these and they're too small.

Extracts from John Sparks' theme: We fed our horses; then we ate ourselves.

Fred Ross: Want a piece of candy, Babe?

Rose C.: (opening her mouth) Yes, throw it!

Fred Ross: I'll miss your mouth.

Janie: Think you could miss her mouth?

Fred Ross: Well, I know someone who never misses it.

Haroldine: Harry, dear, you live on State Street, don't you?

Harry: Yes, why?

Haroldine: That's what I told dad. He made such a funny mistake yesterday. He said he's been looking you up in Bradstreet.

Trent's dad: Trent, I wish you'd learn better table manners; you're a regular little pig at the table. (deep silence on Trent's part. So father in order to impress him more added,) I say, Trent, do you know what a pig is?

Trent: (meekly) Yes sir, it's a hog's little boy.

Tom's mother: Tommy, I wish you'd run across the street and see how old Mrs. Brown is this morning.

Tommy: (a few minutes later after returning) Mrs. Brown says it's none of your darn business how old she is.

ORGANIZATIONS

By Kay

Sophomores Will Order Rings Early

At the sophomore meeting last week, the class decided to order junior rings now so that they will get them in June. They must order and deposit their money with Mrs. Nelson before March 1. The class also decided to sell hot dogs at the Armijo game on February 26.

Senior Class Plans Gift for Future Seniors

The seniors are having a platform built for the stage. The platform is built so that there will be three tiers each about eighteen inches higher than the other. The structure will be in sections that can be put up and taken down easily for storing.

"The Mummy and the Mumps," a comedy, has been chosen for the senior play. As yet, the cast has not been selected.

At a special meeting for the girls, they decided to wear pastel formals for graduation.

Rats! Rats! Rats!

The Junior Red Cross is having a rodent campaign to rid Vacaville of rats and mice. Any student can participate in this campaign. The premium for rat tails is a nickel; mouse tails are worth one cent apiece.

Victory Book Fund Grows

From the looks of things, the Junior Red Cross will have a number of books to contribute to the Victory Book Campaign.

Besides $5.00 donated by the Junior Red Cross and $7.05 donated by students, the Juniors have also received checks for $2.50 from the Grange and the Saturday Club. Probably more organizations will donate as meetings are held.

Student Body Holds Stamp Dance

A Student Body stamp dance was held in the afternoon on February 11 in the gym. The admission was one twenty-five cent Defense Stamp or three ten cent stamps. The total sale of Defense Stamps amounted to $38.00. We ought to have these dances more often to increase our stamp sales.

Junior Prom Planned for March 6

The Junior Prom will be held March 6 in the gym. The music will be furnished by our own Top Hatters. Admission will be $1.10 per couple. Although the theme has not been announced, we gather from the clever posters that it will be Hawaiian.

Some of the boys are asking all the girls if they have been asked and making a list to choose from. Not a bad idea, boys, but remember it's getting late.

F. F. A. NOTES

By Vic

Last week the future farmers took a trip to the Bera ranch. They have taken the food shortage seriously and have increased their farm quite a bit in the past weeks with the purchase of 43 feeder pigs and 21 dairy cows. They also have planted a large victory garden, and have 40 chickens for home use.

Let's everyone take this shortage seriously and raise a garden, a few chickens for home use, and save the other food for our boys on the front. Come on, let's everybody wake up and lend a hand. If our boys can go out and die for us, why can't we work for them?

There is a drive on to induce parents to attend a night class on the raising of gardens and chickens, so don't forget to tell your parents.

NAVY TAKES MR. KINDIG

Robert L. Kindig, for the past year Supervisor of Child Welfare for Solano County, left last Wednesday for Pensacola, Florida where he will undergo training as a gunner-instructor in the Naval Air Corps. Mr. Kindig is a first lieutenant.

Mr. Kindig was the history teacher at the Vaca Valley Grammar School until last year when he filled the position left vacant by the resignation of Mr. L. B. Sarasin.

FASHIONS

By Carmel

Plaid shirts for girls seem to be the latest fad. ARLENE FRANKLIN wears her plaid shirt with a navy skirt. ARLENE'S is in many colors, blue predominating...MISS PINER'S plaid shirt is navy, blue and red....NANCY CHANDLER bought her blue and red shirt a size larger and wears it shirt-tail-out with a navy skirt.....BETTY CLINE wears hers with a matching plaid skirt. Cute!

Now that spring is just around the corner, many pastel skirts are seen around the campus. ANITA LORENZO has a light blue and brown muted plaid skirt. ANITA wears a white short-sleeved cardigan with it. Very pretty, ANITA! GINNY PENA'S light blue plaid skirt is very springlike...ROSE CINTAS'S sky blue pleated skirt is very pretty....YOURS TRULY has a pale blue skirt with brown and white. A tomato red sweater is worn with it.

Argoyle sweaters get more popular every day. ROSE MARIE CODINA and YVONNE CAMPARDON each have a beige and brown one. Their sweaters have plain beige backs with beige and brown plaid in front...Boy's sweaters are favorites among the girls. NANCY wears a light brown one every once in awhile....BETTY PRICE wears a beige one....The sweater LOUISE wears is in brown.... YVONNE C. looked cute in JOE CAMPOS'S ski sweater the other day.

Corduroy suits are still as popular as ever. CLARE MOWERS and NANCY CHANDLER each have a blue one.

TERSHUREN AND ESTEPA FASTEST TYPISTS

Erna Tershuren and Willie Estepa are now the fastest typists in their respective classes

The following are scores attained by the several better students in the Commerce I and II classes. You will note that less than half of the total number in the classes is represented here.

Commerce I

Ten minutes--Less than two errors

Willie Estepa-----	0-26
Kay Goepfert-----	2-29
Isabel Tortosa-----	2-29
Jean Baker-----	2-28
Betty Price-----	2-28

Commerce II

SEEN AT THE DEFENSE STAMP DANCE

Bill Duffy ex '43 asking most of the girls to dance.

Many of the girls not dancing. What's wrong, boys?

Joe Campos really going to town.

Rose Cintas wanting to dance with James R., but everyone cutting in.

Joe Lopez dancing with Phyllis N. most of the time.

Don enjoying himself, and giving all of the girls a gay time with his dancing.

Manuel N. again with Bobbye Bower.

The Cline sisters dancing together.

Our SALUTE to you

So far as the Rumble Staff can find out, Vaca High has 129 former students in the armed forces. To date we have been able to get news of 30, but we'll have more in the next Hilltop Rumble.

The following are reported on the address unknown list: Eddie Walters '42, Fred Klays '39, Hilton Reynolds ex '43, Frank Campos ex '41, Jack Page '35, Doyle Bagley '42, and Alonzo Castro '40.

Lloyd Chandler Jr. '42, who is in the merchant marines, was first sent to San Francisco, then to Seattle, and is now at an address unknown.

Jack Baxter ex '43 is in the hospital corps. He was first sent to San Diego and is now over-seas.

Vincent Holzer '38 is in Arizona. At present, he is waiting to be shipped across.

Corporal Frank Libonati '36 is stationed in Australia. In a letter received from Frank, he stated that he had traveled 3000 miles.

Dick McEathron '40 who is with the Coast Guards, is stationed at Idaho; and Kelly Pasley ex '44 is stationed there with the Navy.

Sergeant Elmo Alley '33 is located in Georgia.

George Bloise '42, who started out with Frank Pulido '42, Hank Price '42, and Bill Seminoff '42, was separated from them and sent to Bandon, Oregon; whereas the other boys are at Gold Beach, Oregon.

Delbert Hargis ex '39 has also been stationed in Oregon.

Louis Mohr '20 is stationed with the Army in Fresno.

Truman Dykes '36, who is in the Army, is stationed at Pearl Harbor.

John Ellasces '43, Shung Fong '42, Fred Mueller'42, and Bill Selig '40 were among the last group of draftees who left for the Army several days ago.

Charles Eldredge '36 is stationed in the Aleutian Islands with the Marines.

Bill Duffy ex '43, who is with the Navy, is reported to be in San Francisco at present. He hopes to be shipped out soon, he says.

Richard Baxter '42 has been moving right along. He is now at Corpus Christi, Texas learning to be an Ensign in the Naval Air Corps.

Byrle Hargis '42 is stationed at San Diego with the Marines.

Eddie Pena '42 first went to New York and is now stationed in Alameda with the merchant marines.

VACA ALUMNI HONORED

Daniel Rodriguez '42 was honored by being selected as ribbon boy at the launching of a BDE-25 Corvette escort vessel at Mare Island Thursday. Mrs. R. H. Street, who has worked for twenty-five years at the island, was the sponsor who broke the bottle of champagne while Daniel cut the blue and gold ribbons that released the ship from the dock.

Daniel is an apprentice rigger. He has finished his first year of a three-year course at this trade

Admiral Friedell, Commander at Mare Island, was in attendance at the launching.

RIDING ALONG TOGETHER

Cavalry Recruit: Sergeant, pick me out a nice gentle horse.
Sergeant: Have you ever ridden a horse before?
Recruit: No.
Sergeant: Then here's just the animal for you. Never been ridden before. You can both start together.

AUNT SALLY'S COLUMN

Dear Aunt Sally,

When Bobbye B. and the Cline sisters get stale, do you think V. L. and M. N. should run back to their old girl friends?

--'45

Dear '45,

Boys like that shouldn't have girl friends because it goes to show that they really don't care for them. In that case, their old girl friends shouldn't take them back.

--Aunt Sally

Dear Aunt Sally,

Why does A. C. get angry when Angelo G. takes me out? Is it jealousy?

--F. B.

Dear F. B.,

I don't see why she should be jealous. I hear that she's engaged. It's probably force of habit.

--Aunt Sally

Dear Aunt Sally,

I have a very difficult problem. I used to like all the boys 'till I met a certain Armijo boy. I told myself I wouldn't like a boy too much until I was older, but it has happened. I'm all alone since he's gone to war, and somehow I just can't go out with anyone else. I have been refusing lots of dates because of him. Shall I continue being cold toward everyone, or should I continue as I always have?

--Junior Girl

Dear Junior Girl,

I really don't see why you should refuse your dates. Go ahead and have your fun. After the war, if he still loves you, there's plenty of time for both of you.

--Aunt Sally

Dear Aunt Sally,

I like a junior boy very much. He's our star football player but he doesn't seem to care for me or even notice me. Can you tell me how I can make him care for me?

--'46

Dear '46,

Your problem is one of the hardest I've received in all these years of my work, but I can give you a little advice.

Be nice to him, not too nice, and if he likes you, he'll show it or tell you; but if he doesn't care for you at all, you'd better forget him before he hurts your feelings.

--Aunt Sally

BADMINTON CHAMPIONSHIP DECIDED BY PLAYOFF

On Friday of last week, the junior girls beat the sophomores in three very close games, the juniors thus becoming the champion badminton players of Vaca High. The juniors had previously defeated the seniors, and the sophomores had won from the freshmen.

Teams playing simultaneously in three courts were matched thus:

Juniors vs Sophomores

Betty Lee Hall and Mary Helen Power	vs	Dorothy Fernandez and Frances Baron
Jane Ellascess and Marcelle Campardon	vs	Barbara Allen and Yvonne Campardon
Erna Tershuren and Lorraine McCready	vs	Beaulah Jacobs and Pauline Sherman

The junior captain was Mercedes Cintas, and Yvonne Campardon led the sophomores.

PING PONG PLAYOFFS NEXT WEEK

While some of the girls have been playing badminton, the rest have been going out for ping pong. The championship will be decided some time next week when the playoffs are held.

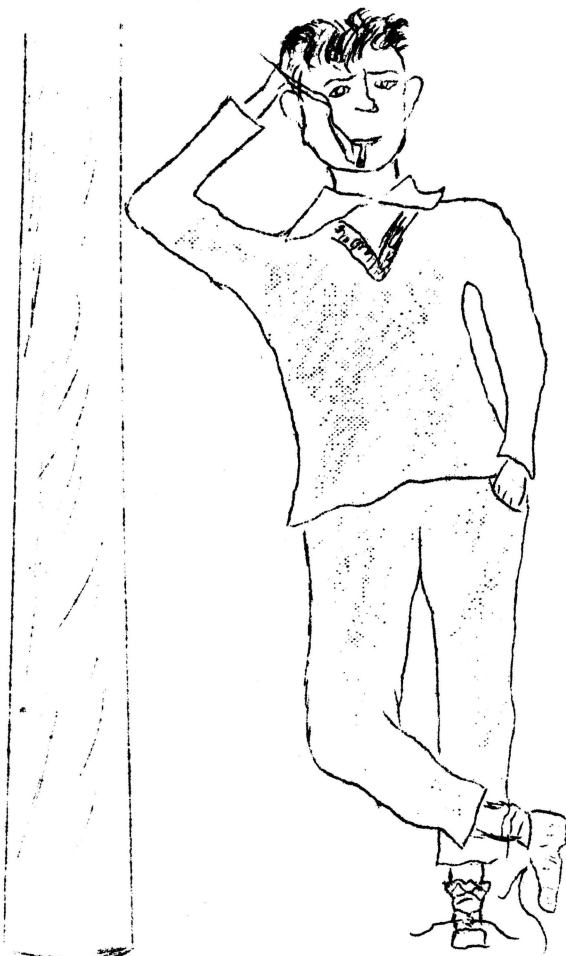

The ping pong teams are

Kay Goepfert and Helen Sweeney	Seniors
Rose Cintas and Carmen Fernandez	Juniors
Ruby Williams and Rose Mary Boyle	Freshmen

No sophomores went out for the ping pong teams.

VOICE OF EXPERIENCE

A general and a colonel were walking down the street. They met many privates, and each time the colonel would salute, he would mutter, "The same to you." The general's curiosity was soon aroused, and he asked, "Why do you always say that when you salute a private?" The colonel answered, "I was once a private, and I know what they are thinking."

TEEN TIPS

FOR BOYS ONLY

We have such a soft spot in our hearts for our high school boys that we have never dreamed of saying a word against them. However, since we promised them some tips last week, we don't want to disappoint them. So here, boys, is what your best girl won't tell you; but it's something she thinks about just the same.

Your sweater boys, do you wear your sweater a whole year without a tubbing? A dirty, smelly sweater is no aid to popularity, and we are sure mom would love to wash it.

Most boys go to extremes when it comes to haircuts. They either wait until their hair gets positively shaggy, and when they do reach the barbar, they have it cut so short that it looks like a shave. And boys, combs were not made for decorations, they were made for use.

And every day I see you pull grubby handkerchiefs out of your pockets. You have probably used them to wipe greasy hands on, or to dust the car with. I am surprised! Always have a spotless handkerchief in your pocket.

A spineless walk and a slack posture are signs of a big inferiority complex. A good carriage makes the plainest man handsome and gives him the appearance of poise even when he is ill at ease.

Many boys take the family car apart and then never bother to get the grease and dirt off of their hands. A gritty soap and a little brush help a lot. It isn't a bad idea either to keep the nails clean and filed a bit smooth.

What about your manners? Do you yell, "Hi, Toots!" at a girl across the street or single her out in a crowd with loud kidding? Many boys ignore the little courtesies due from men to women, and practically knock a girl down getting through the door before she does.

Last, but not least, boys should always look nice and neat. Try hanging up your clothes at night instead of throwing them around. Run-over heels, untidy and dull shoes always make a bad impression. The girls may say nothing but they see all.

And boys, here are some "Flower Tips" for the Junior Prom. Be sure to find out the color of your date's dress. It helps in the choice of flower.

Pink or white carnations make perfect corsages: They're crisp and fresh and do a lot for a crepe or chiffon dress. Violets are wonderful for daytime, but one just can't wear them at a dance. They are too bunchy and they wear a girl out carrying them around on her shoulder. Orchids? They sound wonderful and it's exciting to give your girl her first; but the lavender kills other colors. Be sure her formal isn't peach or red or green. Browns, black, white, or soft blues blend well. Camillias like orchids are high-hat, but not as expensive. In pink, they go well on white, navy, black, brown, or light blue. Rubrum blues are big pale pink lilies with burgandy markings. They are wonderful with pink, dark red, blue, black and white. They look grand and last like crystal. And gardenias are always right and are popular with all girls. They go with any color. Blue Dutch-iris are orchid-like and are devastating on white, blue, and pink. Roses and sweet peas are to look at rather than to wear.

VACA HIGH LOSES MR. BUTLER

Mr. George Butler, science teacher at Vaca High for the past year and a half, was inducted into the army last Tuesday.

Mr. Butler will leave next Tuesday. His destination is unknown.

Following Mr. Butler's departure Mrs. Butler will make her home in San Francisco.

LET'S BEAT ARMIJO THIS YEAR

Tonight is our last chance this year to see our teams play. Armijo is coming up to be defeated (we hope). We need a very good rooting section. Although our B's haven't much to worry about, our A's are the ones who need support. Let's all try to make it to the game tonight!

REMEMBER WHEN

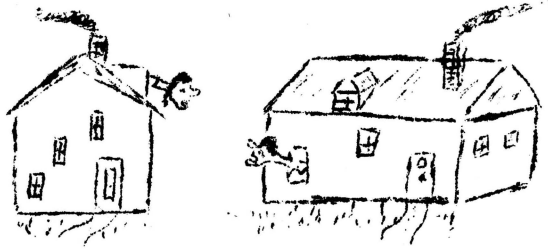

The freshmen were the quietest students?
Victor Lorenzo had a crush on Isabel Campos?
Bill Pasley thought girls were the silliest things?
Raymond Woodcock thought Mary Lou Jepson was the only one?
Ginny Pena and Dolores Espinosa couldn't keep their eyes off of Sundy Bera.
Isabel Tortosa had a quarrel with another girl over Joe Lopez?
Nick Lorenzo and Rose Cintas were always together?
Dorothy Fernandez made sense?
Lucy Rodriguez was the quietest girl in school?
Jane Ramos didn't like the masculine gender?
Jack Shook didn't say hello to the girls?
Margaret Pritchett went for two of the Baxter brothers?
George Linn had quite a case on Carmel Libonati?
Tom Williams was a reserved little gentleman?
Haroldine thought Harry was conceited?

JOKE

Clerk: The last man who rented this room was an inventor. He developed a new explosive.
Roomer: I suppose those spots on the wall are the explosive.
Clerk: No, sir. They are the inventor.

THE GRAPEVINE

Does the
and VIRGINNIA
other's com-
period mean

fact that JOE MORENO
JICKLING enjoy each
pany so much in secon anything?

ISABEL TORTOSA got three long-distance telephone calls from her Romeo in Winters last week. Nice going! ISABEL CAMPOS wishes to correct last week's statement. She is not going to the Prom with Danny Pede of Winters. GINNY PENA and MABLE TURNER seem to be going in for joy-riding. They were seen riding around in JAMES ALDERSON'S car. The Greasy Spoon seems to be the hangout of all the gang these days. If you go there, you're sure to find them all. ELOISE AZUAR seems to spend quite a bit of time talking about a certain boy from Winters. Who is he, ELOISE? Ah! Romance! Spring is coming! Everyone is in love---MANUEL N. has it bad for BURNA C.--CLARE goes around in a dream most of the day thinking of KEITH (U. S. C. G.)--FRANCES M. seems to think of LUTHER C. (ex '43 now in Navy), and FRANK P. feels the same way about D. F. but we hear their romance isn't running too smoothly. But you know the old saying. VIC has stepped right up and asked BURNIE C. to the Prom before the other wolves had a chance. CHARLES McCORRY is very friendly with W. PERRY, and WILLIAM PERRY is very friendly with PHYLLIS R. The eternal triangle you know! MARSHALL PERRY says he doesn't like the way all the girls go steady around here. One of you girl not engaged might open his eyes so he'll see that there are eligible girls in Vaca. Break up of the week: MANUEL N. and BOBBYE B. When BETTIE C. came to town, he dropped B. B. Remember identification bracolets. BEVERLY DUREN'S has a Navy Insignia on it. You can guess who gave it to her. . . . EMILY McCADDEN'S has her initials on it. . . . CARMEN GARCIA goes in for red in a big way. CARMEN wears a red corduroy sport dress with cheer leaders embroidered on the pockets and football buttons. She also wears red shoes with her outfit. . . . CLARE MOWERS is the up and coming young lady with her new beige nylon coat. CLARE'S coat is as soft as a kitten. . . . NANCY CHANDLER goes in for fuzzy things in a big way. NANCY has a fuzzy pink sweater and she wears it with a brown skirt. . . . LEOLA B. wore a very pretty aqua plaid skirt.

SEEN AT THE ARMIJO GAME

Nancy and Donell sitting in the back of George's station wagon.

Anne, Marg and Norine uptown buying horns and hats.

Certain seniors in the Armijo park attracting the prisoner's attention.

Everyone leaving the game at the half.

Greta yelling hard for N. S.

Marg P. delivering love notes

Lyla sitting in Bob Taylor's lap.

The Armijo boys betting on Vaca

Eugenia and Johnny with five bags of potato chips.

Bob P's. car smeared with lipstick.

Beverly anxious to get home safely

Everyone yelling at Mike G. (Armijo)

Everyone stealing each other's pom-pons.

Barbara full of pep as ever.

FASHIONS

By Carmel

This week has definitely been skirt and sweater week. I have a sneaking suspicion that the snappy mornings have a lot to do with it. . . . JACOBA LOPEZ looked very Christmasie with her red, white, and green skirt with white predominating. She wore a red sweater. . . . ANNE MOWERS has informed us that her blue plaid skirt is a victory skirt. It can also be called an Optical Illusion, because it appears to have three pleats and really has one in front and back. . . . MISS CHAMBERLAIN is probably the only one at school who wants it to rain. MISS CHAMBERLAIN has a new white raincoat made of a new light-weight material. It is very pretty. . . . FRANCES GRIMA looks as neat as pin in her dark green skirt with her green sweater. She also wears a brown sweater with this. . . . LOUISE HILDEN flits around school in her new red box coat which goes nicely with her blonde hair. LOUISE also has a new navy blue skirt with three trick pleats in front and back. She wears a pink cardigan with it. . . . KATHLEEN GOEPFERT looks as bright as a daisy in her yellow knobby-knit cardigan and blue plaid skirt. . . . MISS PINER looks "Piney" in her dark green sweater and plaid skirt. . . . HAROLDINE HAWK feels rugged in her blue plaid shirt. HAROLDINE wore her shirt with a beige pleated skirt. . . . Large knit sweaters with a hand-knitted look are very popular. YVONNE CAMPARDON has a pink one, ANNE MOWERS a red one, and YOURS TRULY a yellow one. . . . Another popular fad in jewelry is
